Introducing September's rider of the month..... Mr. Tom Michael Baker #414 G .

-Now get to know more about this rider and why he was selected in this Holeshot issue for September of 2014.

Tom started practice riding in 1974 at the Indian dunes and Saddleback Park. He rode there with Kenny Zhart and Russ Wagemen, Mouse McCoy and Mike Kedrowski. He started racing in the early 80s at both places in the beginner and novice classes with some of his closer friends. Many of his friends suffered crashes and were paralyzed and hurt during the 80s and he restarted riding in 1996 and 97. During that time he was working to film the movie Titanic. Then, in 1998 Tom crashed at Kenny Zharts track in Canyon country. Nine (9) fractures and he was off for four months in the hospital. While he was off of work and healing he figured he would study mx books religiously on the "art of riding a motorcycle". Once healed he took the David Bailey, Gary Semics, Travis Preston and Mike Healy motocross schools and bought a library of books and videos. I wasn't planning on becoming an expert, Tom said. Expert status just came by learning the techniques. Now, Tom is leading the points with over the Hill gang MX club and you can contact Tom to learn about his motocross school at TPS2005@SBCglobal.net. Tom asks “who needs a motocross school...everybody.” $75 a day until your tired. We will ride until you have had enough. Four students max.

Some of Tom’s recent accomplishments are. He had won the I – Moto summer stadium cross series and the outdoor series and he received a plaque for it. He likes the over the Hill gang club which is awesome and he enjoys the board members. The guys in the over the Hill gang experts give you some room on the track not like Transworld. Arnie Davis has been coaching me how to get through a year and scheduled myself to get through bad races and bounce back and stay with it along with the race losses and not crashing. Tom said “I’d like to see Dave Blunk and Dave Fontes, use my school. “Tom will keep an eye on you on the track and watch you. You think you’re doing something right but you’re not. Someone always needs to watch you and give you advice. Just like the trainer / manager does with a fighter at the corner ropes when the fighter comes back to the chair between rounds. Congratulations Tom! Below at Hollister Nationals ; Attending from left to right Kim, Tom, Su, Chris, Jeff, Arnie, Tom Baker (thumbs up), Trent, Mark, Sean, Phil, Marion, Arch, Mike, Richard. Moto on!
